Corrections

Introduction to Healthcare Informatics, Second Edition

AHIMA Product # AB120015

Chapter 3, page 76, #3, the question should read:

CPOE systems can:
a. reduce medical errors
b. assure that the patient receives the medications faster
c. control the costs of medications
d. save the physician time
e. all of the above.

Answer is e. With the computerized physician order entry along with the applications for decision support, all of these have benefits have been identified.